Jenkins is no ordinary mountaineer. He has summited Everest without supplemental oxygen, climbed K2 in winter, and led expeditions to some of the most remote and dangerous peaks on the planet. Along the way, he has learned firsthand the importance of leadership, teamwork, and perseverance.

In From the Death Zone to the Boardroom, Jenkins shares his insights on these critical leadership qualities. He explains how to:

- Set clear goals and objectives
- Motivate and inspire your team
- Manage risk and uncertainty
- Make tough decisions under pressure
- Build a culture of trust and respect

Jenkins's lessons are not just for climbers. They are for anyone who wants to achieve success in any field. Whether you're leading a team of employees, a group of volunteers, or a family, the principles of mountaineering can help you reach your goals.

From the Death Zone to the Boardroom is a must-read for anyone who wants to be a successful leader. Jenkins's insights are invaluable, and his stories are both inspiring and entertaining.
