Day 1: Arrive in Bangkok

Start your Thailand adventure in Bangkok, the bustling capital city. Upon arrival at Suvarnabhumi Airport (BKK), take a taxi or Uber to your hotel in the Sukhumvit area. This vibrant neighborhood is home to many family-friendly hotels, restaurants, and attractions.

In the afternoon, visit the Grand Palace, one of Bangkok's most iconic landmarks. The palace is home to the Temple of the Emerald Buddha, the most sacred temple in Thailand. Be sure to dress respectfully when visiting the temple, as it is a religious site.

In the evening, take a dinner cruise along the Chao Phraya River. This is a great way to see the city's skyline and enjoy a delicious meal. Many dinner cruises also offer live music and entertainment.

Day 2: Explore Ayutthaya

On day two, take a day trip to Ayutthaya, the former capital of Thailand. Ayutthaya is home to many ancient ruins, including the famous Wat Phra Si Sanphet. This temple complex was once the largest and most important in Thailand, and it's still an impressive sight today.

Other must-see ruins in Ayutthaya include Wat Chaiwatthanaram and Wat Ratchaburana. These temples are all located within a short distance of each other, so you can easily walk or bike between them.

In the evening, return to Bangkok and enjoy a relaxing evening at your hotel.

Day 3: Visit the Floating Market

On day three, visit the Damnoen Saduak Floating Market, one of the most popular tourist attractions in Thailand. This market is located about an hour's drive from Bangkok, and it's a great place to experience the local culture and cuisine.

At the floating market, you can buy everything from fresh produce to souvenirs. You can also take a boat ride through the market and see the vendors up close.

In the afternoon, return to Bangkok and visit the Jim Thompson House. This museum is dedicated to the life and work of Jim Thompson, an American businessman who helped to revive the Thai silk industry. The museum is a beautiful example of traditional Thai architecture, and it's a great place to learn about Thai culture.

Day 4: Learn to Cook Thai Food

On day four, take a cooking class and learn how to make some of your favorite Thai dishes. There are many cooking classes available in Bangkok, so you can choose one that fits your budget and interests.

In the afternoon, visit the Siam Paragon Mall, one of the largest shopping malls in Southeast Asia. The mall has something for everyone, including a children's play area, a movie theater, and a food court.

Day 5: Visit the Elephant Sanctuary

On day five, take a day trip to the Elephant Sanctuary. This is a great opportunity to get up close and personal with elephants and learn about their behavior. The sanctuary also offers a variety of activities, such as elephant rides, bathing, and feeding.

In the evening, return to Bangkok and enjoy a farewell dinner at one of the many rooftop restaurants in the city. This is a great way to end your trip with a memorable dining experience.

Day 6: Depart from Bangkok

On day six, it's time to say goodbye to Thailand. Depart from Suvarnabhumi Airport (BKK) and return home with memories that will last a lifetime.
